

Pro-terrorist comix for today's kids

July 2026

Issue 1

$1.00

FRIDAY NIGHT

It ain't the Fourth of July--

-- more like the Fifth of November!

The author would like to thank the Canada Council for the Arts, without whose help and assistance
this comic was produced.

Victoria, BC.

It's the last day of June --

--the day before Canada Day--

Friday Night

Central Command

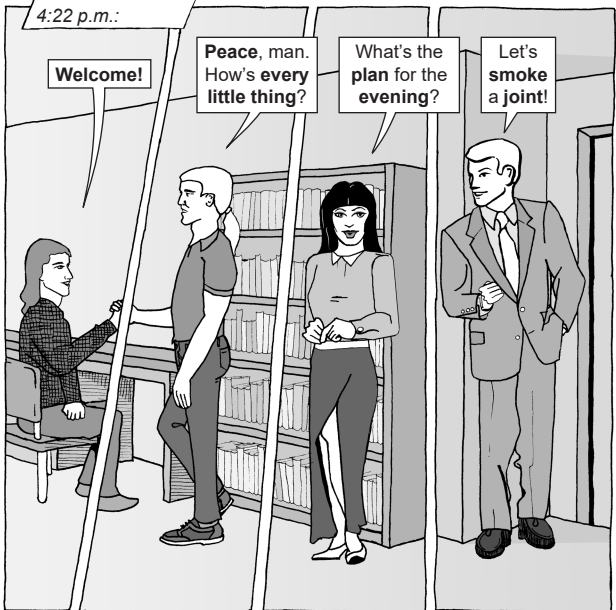

4:22 p.m.:

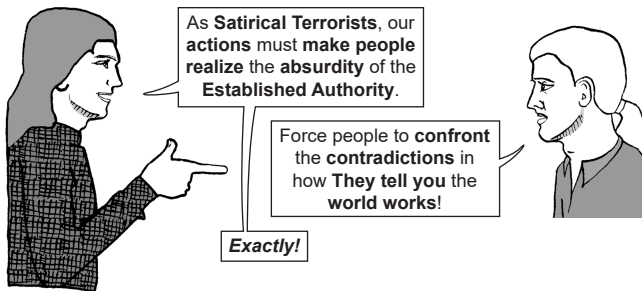

Welcome!

Peace, man.
How's every little thing?

What's the plan for the evening?

Let's smoke
a joint!

Who better than we to strike a blow for freedom and anarchism against state tyranny?

What target is more symbolic than the very seat of government?

And what better day to strike than on Canada Day itself?!

Aww--!

Wow, this is good weed. It makes everything I think seem profound.

You are goofed.

Ah, Canada Day!
Celebrating the anniversary of the day
our nation was founded in a series of pitched and heated meetings.

Tonight we have the opportunity to throw sand into the smoothly-oiled machinery of government.

Yes! It's action!

"Objects not people," man.

Sounds like a giggle!

Thus resolved, the self-proclaimed Friday Knights issue their chilling war-cry:

Doing stupid things in public for no reason at all!

Canadian Tire,
4:52 p.m.:

But--

You should have thought of that before we left.

The 1st ANNUAL CANADA DAY CAPER

Do you really think we can pull this off?

Oh, abso-
lutively!

It's all a matter
of planning-- nothing left to...

-- chance.

Oh, fuck.

Well, who'd have thought Canadian Tire would be closed on Canada Day? Suggestions?

Brick through the window?
No, bad idea . . .

At least you realize that this time.

Isn't K-Mart American?

Charge!

Quiet, you bonehead.

?

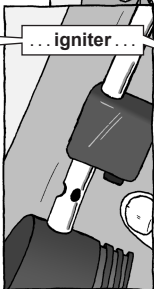

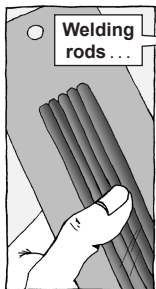

or Shopping Our

Gee, this is a really big room.

Parliament Buildings,
July 1, 3:42 a.m.:

Leave all your ID in the car.

If anyone asks
you anything,
play dumb.

No problem.

We know.

"Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

-- for getting caught!

4:42 a.m.:

Me! Me! Let me do one!

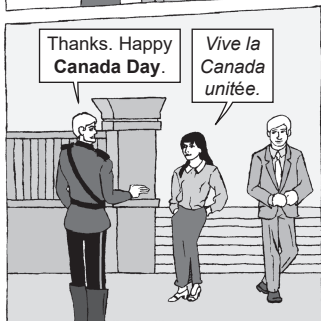

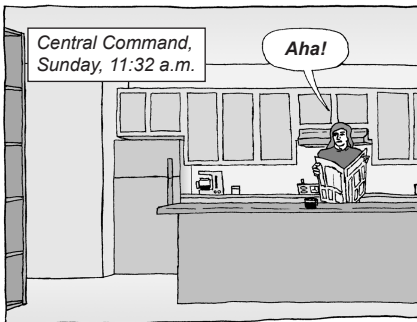

Listen, I feel we were kind of rude back there. Do you ... would you join us for a toke?

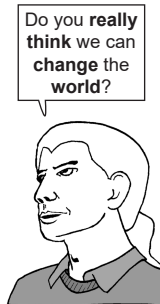

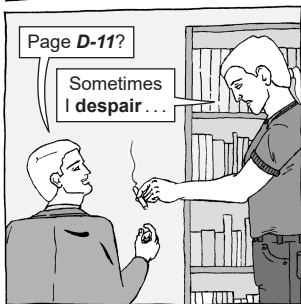

Uh...
Sure.
Thanks.

Page D11: "Vandals target Parliament Buildings. Sometime early Saturday morning, vandals welded shut all the exterior doors of the legislative building."

The First Annual Canada Day Caper

By The Lone Banana

FRIDAY NIGHT COMICS is published by Eclectic Comics. This is Volume I, Number 1, July 2026 issue, v. 1.02.

“The First Annual Canada Day Caper” was first published in Eclectic Comics volume VII, number 18, June / July 1994. That material is copyright © 1994 by The Lone Banana. This revised mini-comic is copyright © 2026 by The Lone Banana. All legal and moral rights are reserved.

Any inquiries should be emailed to MinorMogul@GMail.com or mailed to P.O. Box 692, Salt Spring Island, BC, V8K 2W3. Send $5.00 for a copy of both Issue 1 and Issue 2 of FRIDAY NIGHT COMICS; please pay by cash, cheque, or Interac e-Transfer to the above addresses.

Subscribe to the newsletter! Email “Subscribe!” to the above address.

Critics rave! And rant, and moan...

“Not completely without merit.”

— Circle of Critics Circle

“At times rises above the level of meretricious trash.”

— Harry Hoth

“The funniest comic I’ve ever written.”

— The Lone Banana

Advertisement

It's spring in Vancouver ... Weed is legal ...
Love is in the air ... And everything is played for ...

High STAKES

Help make an independent movie!

HIGH STAKES is an upcoming feature-length dramedy set in the cannabis-storefront world of Vancouver, BC.

The movie combines stoner comedy, romantic comedy, and screwball comedy with heartfelt emotion to address themes of grief, loyalty, and doing the right thing. Plus laughs!

Visit the website to learn about the project, and how you can help!

HighStakesMovie.ca